*See the Virgin is delivered
In a cold and crowded stall;
Mirror of the Father's glory
Lies beside her in the straw.
He is Mercy's incarnation--
Marvel at this miracle!
For the Virgin gently holds the Glorious Impossible.*

*Love has come to walk on water,
Turn the water into wine,
Touch the leper, bless the children--
Love both human and divine.
Praise the wisdom of the Father
Who has spoken through his Son.
Speaking still, He calls us to the Glorious Impossible.*

*Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!
Glorious Impossible*

*He was bruised for our transgressions
And he bears eternal scars.
He was raised for our salvation
And his righteousness is ours.
Praise, oh, praise him, praise the glory
Of this lavish grace so full.
Lift your souls now and receive the Glorious Impossible!*

I chose "Glorious Impossible" from my Christmas CD Glorious Impossible Christmas because if anyone needs to be reminded that God is the God of the impossible its me.

It seems all my life I have been held captive by fear, worry, anxiety, hopelessness, heaviness, unbelief and rebellion. Yet God, in His love, used each trial, struggle and pain with the purpose of driving me into His arms of love and hope. I am sure like me you know the impossibilities in your life inside out, upside down, backwards and forwards. But how well do we know the God of our impossibilities? My prayer for all of us this Christmas is that we will begin to know our loving Father as God of the impossible who sent His Son Jesus Christ whose very life exhibited the glorious impossible.

Yet how was Christ able to do the glorious impossible? it was not on His own but by submitting to and obeying His Father's perfect will for the sake of all mankind. God, the Father, in His never ending love for me has shown me my heart of rebellion, disobedience and unbelief. How can God show any of us He able to do the glorious impossible in our lives if we constantly deny who he is for us? If we don't take Him at His Word that He loves us, that He is for us, that He has a plan and a purpose even if with our human senses we can't see it, feel it, taste it or touch it? Oh how our Father longs to gather us into His arms and hold us, protect us and love us but we are too busy running from those very arms by the failure and sin on our part to submit under His loving authority and His very Word. No matter what my flesh or Satan may want me to do I am choosing to submit myself under His truth. And as I do, to my utter amazement, God is doing the glorious impossible in my life by exchanging the bondages of fear, worry, anxiety, hopelessness, heaviness, unbelief and rebellion that have kept me captive for so long with peace, hope, faith, love, joy, obedience, humility, freedom and so much more that I am not even aware of yet!

Luke 4:18-19

*The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me, because He has anointed Me
To preach the gospel to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the captives,
And recovery of sight to the blind,
to set at liberty those who are oppressed;
To proclaim the acceptable
year of the Lord.*

Luke 1:37

For with God nothing is impossible.

Oh Lord may we come in brokenness before you bowing our hearts to you that you might do the glorious impossible in our lives!

Merry Christmas,

Sara
